Want to see your business featured in the Worcester Business Journal or online at WBJournal.com? Here's how:

Are you local?

The Worcester Business Journal covers Central Massachusetts, which we define as the communities surrounding Worcester east to Natick, south to the Connecticut border, north to the New Hampshire border and west to Hardwick. We are devoted to providing relevant business news to executives within this region. For this reason, we cannot include news from firms who do not have operations in our coverage area. If you have questions about whether we can cover your company, e-mail editorial@wbjournal.com.

Got a story idea?

The Worcester Business Journal in general does not do profiles of businesses within our editorial pages without a strong news hook. That means if you want us to write about your business, you need a compelling reason why your story would be of interest to our readers (business leaders throughout Central Massachusetts). Here are some examples of compelling news stories:

- Your business is undertaking a significant expansion.
- Your business is part of a larger economic trend.

The important thing to remember is our readers are from a cross-section of the Central Massachusetts economy. Every story we run in our publication must be of interest to those readers.

If you meet the criteria above, please e-mail editorial@wbjournal.com with your story pitch or call the editor, Brad Kane, directly at 508-755-8004, ext. 256.

Got an opinion?

The Worcester Business Journal is always looking for opinion pieces and letters to the editor from members of the local business community. Here are some examples of ways to get your name on our opinion pages:

- You have an opinion about a state or federal law/regulation that is impacting your business.
- You have an opinion about a local town or city issue that is impacting your business.
- You have an opinion after reading one of our articles.

You can submit letters or op-eds for publication by e-mailing editorial@wbjournal.com. Letters should be no more than 400 words. Op-eds should be no more than 600 words. The WBJ reserves the right to edit letters and op-eds for length, clarity, style and libelous or offensive material.

Has your company done some good in the local community?

Great! We love to share this news with our readers through our Photo Finish and On The Move pages. If your employees have volunteered at a local nonprofit, or if your company contributed funding to a worthwhile cause, snap a photo and e-mail it to us. All photos must be submitted electronically to editorial@wbjournal.com and must have a resolution of at least 300 dpi. Accepted formats are JPEG, GIF or TIF. Hard copy images will not be used and will not be returned to the sender.

Got a new job?

We run personnel announcements (new hires and promotions) in our On The Move feature in our print publication, and at www.WBJournal.com. Personnel announcements should include the following information:

- Name, title and office location
- A brief description of job responsibilities
- Previous work history
- Residence

Got a business event?

To have your event listed in the paper and at www.WBJournal.com, please go to www.WBJournal.com/calendar and click on the "Post an Event" link. All calendar items must be held within Central Massachusetts and must be business-related. Events that meet these qualifications will appear online within three business days.

Do you belong on a list?

The Worcester Business Journal publishes lists in every print edition and compiles all of our lists in the Book of Lists each July. We run lists based on various industry categories (banks, manufacturers, etc.). You can check out our lists HERE to see if we have a list for your industry. If you belong on one of our lists, email us at editorial@wbjournal.com.

Do you deserve recognition?

We run a variety of award programs throughout the year, including 40 Under Forty, Women in Business and Business Leader of the Year. Click HERE for more information.

Got social media?
